Headline:
Sunshine and showers on Wednesday.

Today:
A largely fine and bright start. Sunny spells and scattered, slow-moving showers developing late morning onwards, some heavy and locally thundery by the afternoon, especially in the west. Mainly light winds and feeling warm in the sunshine between the showers. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers dying out quickly this evening. Cloud thinning before midnight leaving lengthy clear spells which will allow mist and fog patches to form inland. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Thursday:
After a fine bright start to the day with light winds, cloud will increase through the morning as the breeze freshens. Showers developing through the afternoon some heavy or thundery. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells and showers each day with a risk of thundery downpours each afternoon, perhaps with longer spells of rain Friday and Saturday. Becoming breezier. Temperatures a little below normal.
